Before deputies of the Caswell County Sheriff's Office arrived at the plaintiff's home with a search warrant, a series of distressing events unfolded. In a continuous stream of complaints, the plaintiff's neighbors had been calling the Caswell County Sheriff's Office about land property issues. These repeated calls not only caused harassment of the Caswell County Sheriff's Office but also created a sense of unease and discomfort for the plaintiff.

Ms. Britt stated that within the next couple of days, two individuals who were found later to be friends with Jayden Mitchell came to the property of Tylan, while those individuals were on the property, they noticed a dirt bike leaning up against the deck, those individuals reported back to Jayden Mitchell, the dirt bike that was leaning against the deck, is the same dirt bike, friends reported back to Jayden Mitchell, his dirt bike was at the residence of 691 Mineral Springs Road.

Before the search, Ken Mitchell was observed riding up and down Mineral Springs Road. Tylan Thaxton observed Ken Mitchell as Thaxton rode in the same direction as Ken Mitchell. Thaxton was able to observe a female occupant in the vehicle's front seat with another person in the back seat. Ken Mitchell was driving a rental car at the time of this incident. Deputies of the Caswell County Sheriff Office canvassed the plaintiff's property without having proper authorization and failed to announce their presence at the residence.

Plaintiff, Ms. Britt, submitted a Complaint to the CCSO, Sheriff Tony Durden, regarding this incident and was able to provide photos of the same dirt bike, which Lt. Mitchell stated was stolen. Ms. Britt states that at the time of his Complaint, the CCSO had not contacted Ms. Britt, Tylan Thaxton, or Talaisha Thaxton concerning the Complaint.
